Land of mystery and breathtaking beauty

Oman truly embodies the romance and mystique of Arabia. From the “Norway of Arabia” created by the stunning fjords of the northern peninsula of Musandam at the Street of Hormuz, Oman’s coastline stretches over some 1700 km along the Gulf of Oman all the way down to the ancient “Land of Frankincense” in Salalah and Dharmfur along the Yemeni border.

As one of the oldest civilizations in the entire Arabian Peninsula, Oman is a land of dramatic contrasts with a rich tradition, culture and heritage.

Magnificent beaches, gorgeous mountain ranges, deep canyons, beautiful oasis villages in true oceans of palm trees, majestic fortresses, picturesque mosques and minarets all create the breathtaking scenario of natural beauty, pure fascination and true excitement.
